

MEDIA ALERT

Gallery Show to Celebrate Launch of [Name] Community Land Trust

Join your neighbors in a celebration of community

In honor of the organization's official launch [Name] Community Land Trust invites supporters and the public to an art show and reception. Guests can expect to enjoy a full gallery of paintings, sculptures, fiber art, and multimedia displays. All featured pieces represent the work of artists from the communities served by [Name] CLT. Nametags will identify these guests, encouraging attendees to engage with them about their featured pieces. Professionals and potential homeowners alike will have access to displays and information about [Name] CLT and its goals.

What: A launch event for [Name] CLT and a celebration of the people who make Pittsburgh a unique and beautiful city.

Why: To celebrate the beginning of a new venture. The [Name] CLT wants to share its vision and become better acquainted with its neighbors.

Where: Panza Gallery, located at 115 Sedgwick Street, Millvale, PA 15209. This family-run business has provided custom framing in Millvale for over thirty years and curates a fine art gallery on its premises.

Who: We invite our supporters and all new, old, or future friends of the organization. We welcome and encourage the attendance of community members, especially the residents of Millvale, Etna, Lawrenceville, and Polish Hill.

When: Attendees are invited to mingle and sample light refreshments beginning at 7:00pm on Friday, June 21st, 2019. [Name] co-directors John Smith and Jane Smith will deliver welcoming remarks at 7:30pm.

About: The mission of [Name] CLT is to build community ownership that preserves permanent affordability, empowers individuals, and ensures responsible growth and stewardship. We envision diverse communities where people thrive, build wealth, establish roots, and foster community ties without risk of displacement. As we undertake this important work we will strive to live our shared values of sustainability, equity, and inclusion and build an effective organizational model for the delivery and stewardship of permanently affordable space.

For more information about the event or [Name] CLT, please contact:

Leila Giles

Email@email.com or (412) 555-5555